

Sales Onboarding Checklist

1. General Employee Orientation

- Send a company-wide new employee announcement email
- Review and explain the company's mission and vision statements
- Discuss company values, history, leadership, and organizational structure
- Tour the facility and make introductions
- Finalize any remaining hiring paperwork
- Provide and review the employee handbook
- Confirm the sales compensation structure Outline the employee benefits program
- Go over paid time off (PTO), how to request time off, and paid company holidays
- Review health and safety policies
- Provide any items needed for facility access

2. Workstation & Technology

- Set up workstation hardware and equipment, such as:
  - ⊗ Desktop computer, monitor, and mouse
  - ⊗ Telephone
  - ⊗ Printer
  - ⊗ Additional monitor
- Provide and set up mobile devices like a laptop, smartphone, or tablet and associated apps and accounts
- Create an email account
- Assign a phone extension or number
- Review how to access voicemail, record greetings, and settings
- Install needed software and create a user account for collaboration software, such as:
  - ⊗ Customer relationship management (CRM) software
  - ⊗ Project management (often included in CRM software)
  - ⊗ Team messaging software and apps
  - ⊗ File-sharing applications
  - ⊗ Productivity apps
  - ⊗ Video conferencing applications

- Provide an overview of how to use the equipment
- Discuss company policies and expectations for the use of company technology, equipment, and supplies

3. Operational Sales Onboarding Training

- Send a new employee announcement and welcome email to the department
- Tour the department and make introductions
- Show the new hire important spaces such as the break room, restrooms, cafeteria, or kitchen, and where to get office supplies
- Review the sales department's organizational chart
- Review the sales culture of your organization
- Go over what the typical day-to-day sales operation
- Discuss any operational adjustments required due to seasonal changes, for example, you may have a "busy season" where most of your revenue is generated, requiring sales employees to work longer hours during that time period and shorter working hours during other time periods

4. Product & Service Training

- Discuss the technical aspects of the product or service in terms of features, benefits, what it does, how it works, and the main selling points
- Review the ideal customer types and buyer personas for the product or service
- Product demonstrations and presentations covering use and features
- Provide access to online products, such as SaaS (software as a service) products to become familiar with use, features, and benefits
- Review product documentation, technical manuals, user guides, and sales brochures to help the new hire thoroughly understand the products and services they will be selling

Sales Onboarding Checklist

5. Sales Process Training

- Review the sales process, including how to:
  - ⊗ Generate new leads (tactics used)
  - ⊗ Input new leads into the CRM
  - ⊗ Update sales pipeline information
  - ⊗ Nurture leads
  - ⊗ Qualify and score leads
  - ⊗ Close sales
  - ⊗ Onboard new customers and pass them to account management
- Go over resources and procedures for cold calling, including:
  - ⊗ Cold-calling scripts
  - ⊗ Following up with cold leads
  - ⊗ Lead qualification
  - ⊗ Handling objections
  - ⊗ Provide training and access for how to use your CRM
  - ⊗ Discuss and provide simulation practices for conducting a sales presentation

6. Goals & Expectations Setting

- Outline the performance expectations in terms of metrics and activity, including:
  - ⊗ Number of calls placed
  - ⊗ Number of appointments scheduled
  - ⊗ Number of demos booked
  - ⊗ Number of free trials started
  - ⊗ Number of proposals sent
  - ⊗ Total deals closed and/or total sales revenue
- Go over personal and team sales goals as well as the rewards for hitting them
- Discuss procedures or consequences of not hitting sales performance expectations
- Cover resources available (mentoring, training, coaching) to hit their sales goals

7. Lead Generation Resource Allocation Training

- Provide a lead list to the new sales rep with contact information and any notes
- Offer detailed customer profiles on different leads
- Explain how inbound leads are allocated among members of the sales team
- Assign the new salesperson to a Chamber of Commerce, trade or business association, or lead share group to create business and referral opportunities

8. Periodic Check-Ins With New Hires

- Check to see if the new salesperson is hitting their required metrics
- Ask if the sales rep has ideas for improvements
- Determine if the new salesperson is having any specific difficulties with their role
- Ask if there are any tools or training to help them improve their performance
- Ensure all of their equipment and technology is working properly
- Ask if there is any training or topics covered during onboarding or orientation they would like a refresher on